

Teodora Polimerova

Email: t_polimerova@sofia.bg

Tel: +359 2 9041362

Teodora Polimerova is Director of the “Climate, Energy and Air” Directorate at Sofia Municipality. Her professional experience spans over 13 years in the public sector and 10 years in the field of private accounting. She holds a MSc in Planning and Forecasting of Economic Systems, a Specialization in International Economic Cooperation and a MSc in Law.

Currently, she is taking the position of a project manager of the following projects:

- “AIRTHINGS – Fostering resource efficiency and climate change resilience through community-based Air Quality Internet of Things” under the INTERREG V–B Balkan Mediterranean (2014-2020) Programme;
- "Improving the air quality in Sofia Municipality by replacing solid fuel heating devices with environmental alternatives" under the Operational Program "Environment 2014 - 2020";
- “SHEERenov – Seamless services for Housing Energy Efficiency Renovation” under Horizon 2020 Programme.

She has been performing different positions in several projects:

- Project Waste:Kit -7th FP of EU;
- Project “Pre-Waste” - INTERREG IV C
- Project LEAP
- Project Feasibility study and supporting documents for the project “Construction of Integrated Waste Management Facilities for Sofia Municipality” for financing of EU funds/ERDF and Cohesion fund through the OP “Environment 2007-2013”
- Project Construction of Integrated Waste Management Facilities for Sofia Municipality, including construction of a new landfill, an anaerobic digestion plant and a MBT plant
- Technical assistance for the project “Recultivation and closure of an old landfill with final aim to apply for funds for the investment proposal under the OP “Environment 2007-2013”
- Project “CoNet”- URBACT II programme
- Project “R4R” - 6th FP of EU
- Project “Promise” – SEE programme
- Project “Opencities”