

Charilaos (Charis) Alexopoulos was born in Thessaloniki, Greece. He finished with distinction the German High School in Thessaloniki and then studied Mechanical Engineering in the Polytechnic School of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. In 1991 he obtained his MBA title from The City University Business School in London.

He was shareholder and manager of primary school “Philippos Alexandros” S.A. and the technical consultancy company DOMOPLAN LTD. Today is a shareholder of DOMOTEL S.A., a Hotels and Leisure company. He is shareholder and Managing Director of the construction company DOMOTECHNIKI S.A. as well as of the three subsidiaries in Sarajevo, Pristine and Skopje.

He is member of the Board of Directors of Thessaloniki Chamber of Commerce and Industry, having served as 2nd Vice President for five years. Since January 2015 he is Chairman of the National Committee of Greece and Member of the Business Council of the Black Sea Economic Cooperation (BSEC). He is former 2nd Vice President of the Federation of Industries of Northern Greece and former Chairman of the Association of Graduates of the German School of Thessaloniki. In March 2014 he was appointed Honorary Consul General of Japan in Thessaloniki.

He speaks fluently Greek, English and German.